N. Y. U. DEFEATS FORDHAM, 7 TO 6

45,000 Football Fans Are Amazed at the Brilliant Playing of Violets

By HENRY SUPER
United Press Staff Correspondent
New York, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—By the slender margin of a point after touchdown, an inspired New York University eleven today capped the topsy-turvy 1936 gridiron season with an upset 7-6 victory over Fordham's unbeaten but tired Rams.

That extra point, provided by Sal Somma, gave the Violets their first triumph over their bitter New York City rivals since 1923. And it pushed Fordham—a team that had been eyeing the Rose Bowl less than a week ago—down among the ordinary eleven of the year.

N. Y. U., which hadn't beaten a major team all season, struck by ground and in the air to score seven points in the second period. Then the rugged Violets amazed a crowd of 45,000 in Yankee stadium by outplaying the Rams the rest of the way except for a brief spurt by Fordham in the same session.

The Rams, tied by Pittsburgh and Georgia, but unbeaten, were seeking their first perfect season in seven years. But they were kept deep in their own territory most of the time by the long, booming punts of Howard Dunne, sophomore end.

In the second half Fordham took to the air. The closest it ever got was to N. Y. U.'s 46-yard stripe early in the fourth period.

The statistics favored Fordham. The Rams made eight first downs to four for N. Y. U., gained 122 yards to 121 on the ground and 31 to 21 through the air.

Spiders Upset Dope Bucket To Defeat Indians by 6-0 Score

Richmond, Va., Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—The University of Richmond today ended the season with its first Southern conference victory—a hard-earned 6-0 win over William and Mary.

A crowd of 10,000 watched the two Virginia eleven battle on even terms until Richmond opened a passing attack with less than 10 minutes of the game left.

George Spears, Richmond back from South Boston, Va., shot two passes, one for 30 yards, to Robertson. Two line plays carried the ball to the William and Mary three-yard line. Spears passed over the goal line to Robertson for the winning six points. The Richmond aerial attack was started in midfield.

William and Mary's sole scoring threat was stopped at the Richmond 15 in the third period.

Walter Zable, William and Mary star right end, ended his career with a "bomber." In the third quarter, he tackled a teammate, Coiner, who had recovered a punt and was running toward the Richmond goal line.

The University of Arkansas, tied for the lead of the Southwest conference, has been invited to oppose the Maroons. Arkansas officials, however, have asked for more time to consider the invitation.

The game will be played in the recently enlarged Crump stadium which seats 19,000 spectators.

Cardinals Lose To Berkley In Last Grid Game

John Pritchard Is Tripped by Spectator As He Runs for the Goal Line

The Elizabeth City Cardinals dropped the final game of the 1936 season to the Berkley Braves here on Hunsucker field yesterday afternoon by a score of 12 to 6 after playing in the visitors' territory most of the time. Bill Pratt, flashy running left halfback, paced the losers with several long runs.

The entire game was hard fought and both teams suffered many and lengthy penalties. Late in the third period, after Pratt had passed to John Pritchard, Cardinal end, who was in the clear without a single tackler in his way, a Berkley spectator stepped on the field and tripped Pritchard as he sped goalward. This seemed to demoralize the Cardinal attack that was goalward bound.

With both clubs presenting hard charging and hard tackling lines, the most of the game was played in the air. The big red Card line was at its height yesterday, turning in the best performance of the year. John Pritchard, who was a rookie at the beginning of the season, turned in the outstanding performance that was nothing short of sensational. He was ably assisted by Johnson and Shirt Sawyer. Droopy Cooper hit a new high for the season's play at a tackle berth.

Alabama Stages Last-Half Rally To Defeat Vandy

By Ernest Moore

United Press Staff Correspondent
Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Spotting the Vanderbilt Commodore a touchdown in the first quarter, Alabama staged a second half comeback today and finished the season undefeated. The score was 14 to 6.

Alabama took to the air lanes for touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters. The Crimson Tide remains a favorite for the Rose Bowl nomination.

Vandy employed a tricky attack which revolved around shovel passes to tally her touchdown. J. Agee took the opening kick-off on his goal line and carried the ball to his 30. J. and Sam Agee, cousins, taking the underhand passes from Huggins, marched to Alabama's 47 where Lick Plasman took a pass from Huggins for 35 yards. On an end around, Plasman scored.

For the first Alabama touchdown, Riley passed 25 yards to Ben McLeod over the goal line. Joe Kilgore converted from placement.

In the fourth quarter, the Tide took a poor kick on Vanderbilt's 35 yard line and marched to the seven with Riley, Kilgore and Bubber Nisbit carrying the ball. On third down Riley passed across the goal to Kilgore, who again place-kicked the extra point.
